2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

How to Undo a Culture's Story
Acts 17:16-34

1. Athens seems to be an in-between stop in Paul's journey as he waits for others to join him (v16). Have you ever seen God at work during in-between times in your plans?
2. What motivates Paul to share the gospel (v16)?
3. What are things that provoke you to anger in our culture? Is your next step to complain, run, share Christ, stay mad, or something else? Discuss.
4. Some people have criticized this sermon and think Paul made a mistake for not being Christ-centered enough. What do you think?
5. Paul is not preaching but reasoning with people. What do you think the difference is?
6. Notice Paul's tactic here is to start with creation and then move to judgement and resurrection. Why do you think he did it this way?
7. Paul's tactic in Acts in speaking to Gentiles is not to quote the Bible, but to use their beliefs to show how Christ fulfills or critiques them. What do you think about laying a foundation of talking about Jesus without your Bible.
8. What beliefs in our own culture would you talk about with an unbeliever to bring them closer to Jesus?
9. Paul summarizes the response to Jesus in a number of ways throughout Acts. In this speech he doesn't call on people to believe. He just says, "repent." Why does Paul call people to respond in different ways to his message? How can he summarize what our response to God should be in this one word?
10. Acts 17:25 is a well-known verse on the Independence of God. What does it teach us about the independence of God?
