2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

When Christ Returns
Revelation 22:12-21

1. When is the last time you thought about the return of Christ? Have you ever been more drawn to pray for the return of Christ? If so, why?
2. Over the last 100 years, American Christians have been obsessed with declaring when Christ will return and trying to line up current events with bible prophesy. Why the obsession?
3. Jesus makes it clear that no one knows the exact timing of His return (Matthew 24:36, Mark 13:32-33). How does this uncertainty affect how we live our day-to-day lives?
4. Revelation 22:12 emphasizes the imminence of Christ's return. How does this concept of "soon" interact with our understanding of God's eternal nature and our temporal existence?
5. Christ is said to bring His recompense with Him (see also Matthew 25:31-33). What does this teach us about the interplay between grace, works, and divine judgment?
6. Verses 14-15 refer to the Tree of Life and the exclusion from the holy city. How does this imagery connect back to Genesis? What is the point?
7. Verse 17 involves a call to "Come." Who are the people being invited?
8. Thirst is a recurring biblical metaphor for spiritual longing (Isaiah 55:1, John 7:37). How does this metaphor here in Revelation 22:17 fit into the larger biblical narrative about God's provision?
9. How does the prayer "Come, Lord Jesus" impact your spiritual journey? Are there ways it should reshape your priorities, relationships, or commitments?
