2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

The Death of God
Matthew 27:27-55

1. Read all the varied reactions at the foot of the cross in this passage that range from mockery to awe (soldiers, religious leaders, the crowd, the criminals. How have you seen each of these kind of responses in your interaction with people?
2. Let's take a minute and connect this event to the story of the Bible:
 - a. How does this event fulfill Psalm 22, Isaiah 53, Zechariah 12:10; Exodus 12:46 and how does that fulfillment speak to the veracity of the gospel?
 - b. How does the darkness that fell over the land (v. 45) connect with other instances of darkness in the Bible, such as God's interaction with Abraham in Genesis 15 or during the plagues in Egypt (Exodus 10:22) or the day of the Lord prophecies (Amos 8:9)? What does darkness often symbolize in scripture and what does it mean for understanding of the crucifixion?
 - c. How does the mocking of Jesus as "King of the Jews" (v. 29) contrast with the true kingship described in Psalm 2 and Psalm 110? In what ways is Jesus' kingship different from earthly expectations?
3. Reflect on times when you have felt abandoned by God. How does Jesus' cry of abandonment on the cross inform your understanding of God's presence in your suffering? (Matthew 27:46, Psalm 22:1, Hebrews 13:5-6)
4. Jesus' quotation of Psalm 22 on the cross (v. 46) is profound. How does understanding this expression of forsakenness help us to trust God's sovereignty even when He seems distant in our own trials? (Psalm 22, 2 Corinthians 5:21)
5. In what practical ways can you imitate the humility and obedience of Christ (Philippians 2:5-11) in your own life, especially in times of unjust suffering? How does the crucifixion challenge us as we are called to 'take up our cross' and follow Jesus? (Luke 9:23)
